You will find the world over that "Patrician" wearers are satisfied wearers. They are of a discriminating class of women who must have that style, fit and service that "Patrician" invariably gives and furthermore, they secure service. This service is the result of using only selected leathers in the making of "Patrician" and on models designed to fit perfectly, thereby causing the shoes to hold their shape to the end. I have every conceivable style for all occasions. If you have not already adopted Patrician as a necessity, a trial will convince you of their superiority.

ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN TO CHILDREN IN HOTEL

Pleasant Feature of Week's Festivities at the Brandon—Many Recent Arrivals.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Basic City, Va., August 20.—One of the biggest entertainments of the season was given last Thursday night at the Brandon by the children in the hotel. Each child impersonated some well-known song very cleverly and artistically. Miss Rosa Moseley, of Richmond, who won one of the prizes, was dressed as "The Merry Widow." She came out dancing to the well-known waltz and made a very charming picture. Mary White, of El Paso, Texas, and Robert Butcher, of Petersburg, won the other prize, their costumes as Silas and Miranda in "The Old Gray Bonnet" being voted very successful. Among the other impersonations were Samuel Rose, as "Hawatha"; Rebecca Alsop and Russell Parrish, as "School Days"; Mildred Tabb and Ann Matthews, as "Two Little Girls in Blue"; Katherine White, as "Rings on Her Fingers and Bells on Her Toes"; and three little girls in Japanese costumes, as "Three Little Maids From School Are We." After the tableaux a march was led for the children, and then followed a dance, which all the guests of the hotel enjoyed.

Friday night a lawn fete was held on the lawn in front of the Brandon. It was given for the benefit of the Episcopal Church in Basic City and proved quite successful, as all the guests of the hotel enjoyed taking part.

"Tuesday night a very successful entertainment was given by the young people in the hotel. Each one represented some advertisement. The audience had no trouble in guessing what each one represented, and the costumes were all appropriate. The guests who were looking on were greatly amused and entertained.

Bowling matches are still popular, and bridge tables are always to be seen.

"Its Aroma is delicious. Its Flavor is rich. Its body is fine."

COACHING PARTY GIVEN AT SWEET CHALYBEATE

Past Week an Eventful One From Social Standpoint—Guests Attend
White Sulphur Horse Show.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Sweet Chalybeate, Va., August 20.—The golden days are passing swiftly at the Sweet Chalybeate, where days, weeks and months blend in one perfect whole of hours happily spent. The past week has been an eventful one from a social standpoint, and this resort has been in gala attire all the week long. The crowning event was a coaching party, given in honor of Miss Orphella Patterson, of Houston, Tex. The old fashioned stage coach, drawn by six horses, was called into requisition to convey the merry party to Beaver Dam Falls, where a picnic supper was served, followed by a marshmallow roast. Among those invited were: Misses Beth Fitzgerald and Libbie Rice, Mrs. Philip Carson, of Houston, Tex.; Miss Marie Burwell, Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Helen Moody and Mrs. Theo. Moody, of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Christine Rogers, Aberdeen, Miss.; Miss Helen Phillips, Baltimore, Md.; Joe and James Hume and Fitzhugh Lee Hudgins, Portsmouth; Joe Fiveash and Mr. E. Lloyd, Norfolk; B. J. Williams and Geo. H. Heller, Richmond; S. C. McKinney, Covington, and Earl Dodd and E. Brooke Eakle, Sweet Chalybeate. The next evening Miss Patterson was tendered a chafing dish supper, to which many of the younger set were invited.

On Monday about forty of the guests drove over to White Sulphur Springs to the horse show, returning late that night.

A charming variation in the entertainments of the season was a benefit for the benefit of the church fund. This was conducted by the Ladies Aid Society, of which Mrs. W. W. Old, of Norfolk, is president. Others who gave their assistance were: Mesdames J. C. Weston, Alice Old, Miss Rose Cooke, of Norfolk; Mrs. W. A. Boykin, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. M. Riddle, Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Fitch, of Richmond, and Mesdames C. B. and F. R. Hunter and Mrs. B. F. Eakle, Sweet Chalybeate, and Mrs. Ida G. Cardwell, of Montgomery, Ala.

The week has been emphasized by a number of picnics and excursions to neighborhood homes, where old time bountiful suppers were served. Among the ever present card parties was that of Mrs. C. B. Reid, of New York City, at which prizes were won by Mrs. Blair Burwell, Miss Burwell, and Mrs. Geo. W. Evans and Mrs. I. G. Kite.

Mrs. David Rice, of Houston, Tex., and Mrs. Blair Burwell, of Jacksonville, Fla., entertained at a bridge of five tables, at which handsome prizes were awarded.

OUTDOOR PLEASURES ATTRACTIVE TO GUESTS

Cards and Other Diversions Add to Enjoyment of Life at Blue Ridge Springs.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Blue Ridge Springs, Va., August 20.—Universally delightful has been the past week at Blue Ridge Springs, each day being filled to overflowing with its pleasant diversions and amusements, blue skies and sunshine and moonlight nights making the place beautiful as it is, even more enchanting. One of the most enjoyable events of the week was a hay ride given by Miss Julia Todd, of Norfolk, a very attractive and popular young woman. After the jolly ride refreshments were served in picnic style at the spring. On Wednesday morning a pretty card party of progressive euchre was given by Mrs. Melville A. Pugh, of New York City. The highest scores were made by Mrs. J. A. Shakespeare, of New Orleans, and A. A. Williams, of Petersburg. Mr. Williams, winning on the cut, graciously presented the prize, a handsome silver picture frame, to Mrs. Shakespeare, who in turn presented it to Mrs. A. A. Williams, a most charming and popular young matron. The consolation prize, a very pretty brass candlestick, was cut by Miss Elizabeth Bolling, of Bedford City.

On Monday morning a watermelon feast to the entire assemblage of guests was given on the lawn by Phil Brown.

Quite a number of pretty and attractive young women have recently been added to the list. Among them are: Miss Elizabeth Bolling, of Bedford City; Maud Wywa, Murfreesboro, N. C.; Mary Butler, from Richmond, and Beattie Moore, of Roanoke, who is the guest of Miss Gaynell Hancock. Cards are, as ever, very popular, many informal parties being given day by day, the long bridge, with its vines and flowers, being a favorite place for the games.

Tennis, clock golf, riding, driving and tramping, etc., still claim their devotees.

Great interest is taken in the bowling matches each day, the ladies' championship being held by Miss Sara Vaughn, of Murfreesboro, N. C. C. W. Vert Brgwn holds the championship among the men, having made a score of 217 in ten boxes.

An automobile party was given on Tuesday night by Tom Hunter and Fred Straas in honor of Misses Gaynell Hancock and Lillian Davidson, two fair representatives of the Lone Star State. The friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Rucker, of Manchester, are glad to welcome them back this summer.

ATTRACTIVE AFFAIRS AT THE HOT SPRINGS

Miss Mary Johnston and Miss Ellen Glasgow Entertained—Many Delightful Social Functions.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Virginia Hot Springs, August 20.—Society here has divided honors with the villa and hotel colonies at the Warm Springs this week, several of the most attractive functions having drawn large throngs of prominent people to the Warm Springs. A series of baseball games at Recreation Park, between scrub teams, composed of guests here and at the Warm, have proven exciting and interesting, and have drawn grandstands of enthusiasts.

The reception and tea of the week was given Monday afternoon at the old Colonial Hotel at the Warm Springs, complimentary to Miss Mary Johnston and Miss Ellen Glasgow, the authors. It was an all fresco affair and Mrs. George T. M. Gibson assisted Mrs. John L. Eubank in receiving. Mrs. Rosalie Herndon presided over the punch bowl, and Mrs. Frederick B. McGuire poured tea. Every one of prominence, both here and at the Warm Springs, was invited.

Another attractive tea was given by Mrs. George Mason, of Chichester, on Thursday afternoon, on the lawn adjacent to the Casino. Nearly 100 guests responded to invitations, and among those at the tables, which were grouped around a large center service table, were Dr. and Mrs. Sticker, Col. and Mrs. J. E. East, Admiral and Mrs. Williams, Buchler, Gen. and Mrs. Wm. Ruffin Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Mrs. Edgar W. Bright, Mrs. Edgar A. Pole, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Caperton, Colonel and Mrs. Edward Colston, Miss Judith Colston, Mrs. Robert Coleman Drayton, Mrs. Edwin R. Stettinius, Miss Carrington, Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, Miss Gladys Ingalls, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. W. Packard, Mrs. B. C. Tighman, Mrs. Walter McMichael, Mrs. Geo. Cole Scott, Miss Caroline Wood, Miss Ellen Hopkins, Mrs. Robert Toland, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Robinson, Miss Edna Ward, Judge and Mrs. Pierce, Miss Deborah Glover, Mrs. Chas. D. Justice, Colonel and Mrs. Edgar Dickson, Judge W. H. Jackson, Major W. Stuart Symington, William Rogers, Benjamin Williamson, Keen, William Hopkins and William Shepard Bryan.

Mrs. Edward Crozer, who came down from Philadelphia to spend the week and with Mr. Crozer and remained over for several days, has returned North with Mrs. Robinson Boykin. The Crozers, who are in deep mourning, have done no entertaining and have accepted no invitations.

In the villa colony there has been much entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, who inaugurated their series of Sunday afternoon at home last Sunday at Ingleside, gave a dinner on Tuesday evening, complimentary to Justice and Mrs. Horace Lorton. Among those invited to meet them were Bishop and Mrs. Ethelbert Talbot, Colonel and Mrs. Edward Colston, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Green and Mrs. Audenried.

Mrs. Charles Dickson was the guest of honor at an attractive tea on Sunday afternoon at Edmonstone Lodge, when Judge and Mrs. William Harrison Jackson entertained a large company from the hotel and cottage colony.

Dr. Guy Fairfax Whiting and the Misses Whiting have returned to Barton Lodge from the White Sulphur horse show. Miss Alice Whiting leaves shortly for Manchester-by-the-Sea, where she will be the house guest of Miss Margaret Draper, a contemporary debutante last winter in Washington. George Cole Scott has joined Mrs. Scott at Fern Villa and has brought several of his motor cars up.

Wise Picnickers

Take Along

Grape-Nuts

FOOD

Ready-Cooked, Delicious

and Nourishing

In making up lunch for picnickers, some form of substantial food that cannot easily be injured in transit should be supplied, and the most ideal article for that purpose is Grape-Nuts. This food comes in a 15-cent package, is already thoroughly cooked, and can be used either dry or with the addition of some milk or cream. Grape-Nuts food is used by some epicures in frying fish, for it adds a delightful flavor, and is naturally superior to the ordinary crumbed crackers or corn meal for this purpose. In addition to the convenience of Grape-Nuts food, its highly concentrated food value should not be lost sight of. Read "The Road to Wellville," in page "There's a Reason."
